

The Johns Hopkins Hospital
Schools of Medical Imaging
Radiography Program

Program Effectiveness Data 2015-2019

ARRT Pass Rate 2015-2019

Year	Number of Students Attempted Exam	Number of Students Passing Exam on First Attempt	Average
2015	7	7	100%
2016	11	10	90.9%
2017	18	18	100%
2018	12	12	100%
2019	15	15	100%
5 year Average			98.4%

Program Completion Rate

Year	Number of Students Beginning the Program	Number of Students Graduating from the Program	Percentage Completing the Program
2019	15	15	100%

Job Placement Rate

Year	Number of Students Attempting to Find Employment	Number of Students Who Found Employment Within 12 Months	Percentage
2015	7	7	100%
2016	11	11	100%
2017	18	18	100%
2018	12	12	100%
2019	15	15	100%
5 Year Average			100%

The Johns Hopkins Schools of Medical Imaging Radiography program provides all training necessary to sit for the American Registry of Radiologic Technology's national board examination. The program satisfies the applicable educational prerequisites for professional licensure in the state of Maryland. According to the ASRT Wage and Salary Survey, 2019, the average salary for all Radiographers in the state of Maryland is $60,594.00.